Mayrhofen : Zillertal : Tyrol www.mayrhofen.st

The Mayrhofen/Hippach Holiday Region is located in the Upper Zillertal and in the heart of Tyrol. Together with the villages of Brandberg, Ginzling, Ramsau and Schwendau, it offers an extensive range of attractions for a fantastic winter holiday and unforgettable summer vacation. In winter the Vans Penken Park, one of the largest snowboard parks in Europe, offers irresistible challenges for snowboarders and freestyle snowboarding. For skiers there are 157 km of piste for pure enjoyment, 48 modern lifts and lots of cozy huts to choose from. The Zillertal National Park offers highly interesting guided walks on a wide range of themes; and a colorful variety of events guarantee many happy hours after doing sport.

Mayrhofen, is an atmospheric town with boisterous nightlife and great terrain. It is located in the Ziller valley that's been popular with Brits since the 1970s for its lively atmosphere and large amount of terrain, including the Hintertux glacier. Today, it's part of the Zillertal 3000 ski area, opening up 620km of pistes and making it the biggest resort in the valley
